

en

Certifies thatVitalijs Visnevskis

has been awarded with the

DIPLOMA OF SPECIALIZATION IN INNOVATION AND PROJECT MANAGEMENT

satisfying the academic requirements and that has a duration of 250 hours

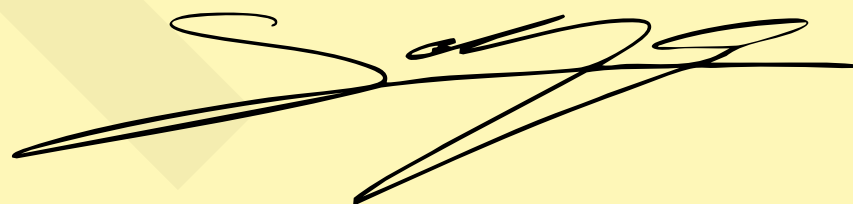

Attested by the Escuela de Negocios Europea de Barcelona, an Educational Institution registered in the Spanish Registry of Training Entities under the No. 8174; and is a member of the Spanish Alliance of Training

On the 6th of February, 2025

Student

Mr. Santiago Navarro-Rubio

Director of studies

Mrs. Jessica García Rodríguez

Registrar

Skills

Creative thinking by generating innovative ideas and creative solutions to drive innovation in projects.

Problem-solving through effective identification and addressing of various types of contingencies.

Leadership towards achieving objectives, both on an individual level and within the work team.

Effective and open communication among team members, in a clear manner.

Efficient change management at all organizational levels, ensuring smooth and effective transitions.

Adaptability to changing and dynamic environments, with the ability to turn them into opportunities for the project and the organization.

Strategic thinking through the development and execution of strategies that drive innovation and the long-term success of the project.

Collaboration, teamwork, and mutual support.

Organization and prioritization of tasks to optimize time management and meet established deadlines.

Continuous learning through the constant pursuit of new knowledge and skills to stay updated on the latest trends and technologies in project management and innovation.

On the 6th of February, 2025